SENN HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

Youth, the spirit of childhood and jollity is the theme of the 1939 Forum. It is in marked contrast to the solemn dignity of the 1938 Silver Jubilee Forum.

In his message to the students, published in the first Senn News of the current school year, Principal David M. Davidson referred to us as students in the first year of the second quarter century of Senn.

Our first year in a march toward fifty years of Senn achievement, the Golden Jubilee, should embody all the care-free humor of another beginning, another year of reliving the never-to-be-forgotten Readin', Ritin' and 'Rithmetic experiences of youthful days.

The Staff sincerely hopes that this spirit pervades the 1939 Forum.

DAVID M. DAVIDSON

Principal of Senn High School

DEDICATION

The 1939 Forum Staff in portraying the spirit of youthfulness on these pages dedicates this book to Miss Nell Peterson, adviser of the Centurion, youthful forerunner of the Forum.

Miss Peterson's initiative and foresight were largely responsible for the success of Senn's first Annual.

Her understanding of students and their problems, her sincere sympathy and enthusiastic encouragement served in good stead during those first years and have ever endeared her to students and faculty alike. These qualities marked her leadership and service to Senn as outstanding.

Her pioneer work on the first Annual has become an inspiration to all. It is our hope that the Forum will always be worthy of its grand beginning and of the teacher who made that beginning possible.

Miss Nell Peterson

January, 1939, Class

When the class entered as freshmen in the winter of 1935 it was "just another freshman class." Four years later this same class of students, numbering close to 300, and headed by Dick Treat, Andy Hayes, Doris Henriksen, Jerry Magruder, and George Harrah, proved itself outstanding in more ways than one.

During the football and basketball seasons the stands were filled with spirited Senn Seniors cheering their teams.

Through the efforts of the All School Council, led by the 4A officers, $1512.00 was raised during the semester exclusive of football games and other social events. Two committees were, in the main, responsible for the collection of this money. They were the Thanksgiving Committee under the direction of Mel Holleb, and the Christmas Committee, headed by Franklin Adams.

Drama played an important part in the semester's calendar. This year the Players and Workers presented Tiger House.

After weeks of preparation and expectation the Prom finally arrived, being held at the beautiful Medinah Athletic Club.

Three short days after, the Senior Luncheon at the Edgewater Beach. Dancing furnished entertainment for the afternoon. The same evening, Thursday, January 26, was the final round-up for a class that had been together for four short, eventful years at Senn.

Faithful and true-hearted,
Let us cheer our dear Senn High,
We revere her and defend her,
And her colors proudly fly;
We will stand for her, united,
Of her deeds we gladly tell,
Her colors streaming,
Glad faces beaming,
So here's a cheer for her that we all love so well.

Joyous and ever loyal,
Let us boost for "Our Senn High,"
Let ev'ry heart sing,
Let ev'ry voice ring,
There's no time to grieve or sigh;
It's ever onward, our course pursuing,
May defeat never our ardor cool,
But united,
We will boost for her, our Senn High School.

June, 1939, Class

Pep and school spirit marked the June, 1939, Class as outstanding. The semester got off to a fine start when Bill Milliken, Jack Millen, Doris Nugent, Ed Relth and Dan Adams were named 4A leaders after a hotly contested election. This quintet, ably directing All School Council activities, planned the many gala Spring affairs.

Among the sporting events, basketball ranked first as a crowd pleaser, and many were the thrilling games the Seniors witnessed. Real Senn history was made when the Kraft Cup was awarded our fencers. Baseball, track, and apparatus teams also provided many exciting times.

More top-ranking entertainment was offered by the presentation of You Can't Take It With You by the Players. Superb acting insured success for this hilarious comedy.

As the end of the semester drew near, Seniors yielded to their desire for some all-around fun. Stunt day with its costumes, parade and dance filled that need most satisfactorily.

The long-awaited Senior Prom was held in the Tower Room of the Drake Hotel only two days before graduation. Then came the Senior Luncheon which was held this year in the Marine Dining Room of the Edgewater Beach Hotel.

Graduation—diplomas, speeches, farewells. Another class has gone.

Senn Alumni Association

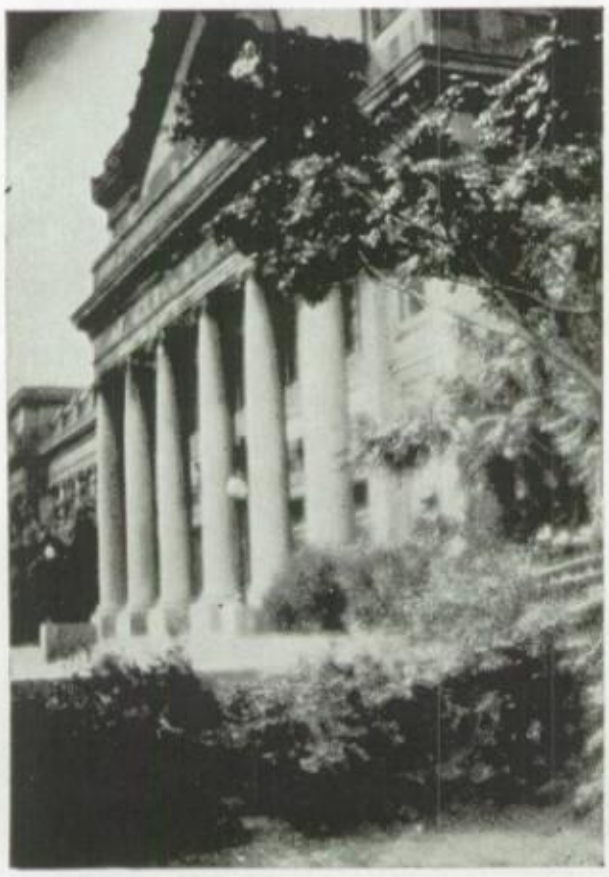
Come on, you Senn, Senn, Senn,
You're out to make a name.
Come on, you Senn, Senn, Senn,
The world will know your fame.
Come on, you Senn, Senn, Senn,
Your victory is assured.
There'll be a hot time in Senn High tonight.
Rah, Rah, Rah!

Senn Silver Jubilee, June 10, 1938, brought back to Senn thousands of graduates, many of whom expressed the wish for an Alumni Association.

A Senn Alumni Committee of fifty Senn graduates and a group of Senn faculty members with Miss McCarthy as Chairman worked for one year with Principal David M. Davidson to organize the Senn graduates of its twenty-five years of existence.

On January 3, 1939, a big Night Club and dance was given in the Senn Cafeteria, at which the Constitution and by-laws were adopted.

On May 5, Jack DeCaprio, president of the June, 1932, class, was elected president; Wallace Dunn was voted vice-president; Shirley Long was made recording secretary; Miss Frances Erikson, a Senn graduate and faculty member, was elected corresponding secretary; and Robert Paetz was chosen treasurer.



A Board of Directors of eleven graduates was elected and Principal Davidson named Miss McCarthy, Miss Skillen, Miss Doniat, Miss Corcoran, and Miss Cain as Faculty members.

Betty Bear was elected Chairman of Publicity, while Wallace Dunn was appointed Entertainment Chairman, and Mrs. Maxine Terrill was appointed Membership Chairman.

Members of January and June, 1939, classes were received as members of the Senn Alumni Association at the party on June 9.

All School Council—Fall

S-E-N-N, Rah, Senn! Such was the peppy spirit of the All School Council of last fall. Its speedy organization proved it able to fill its purpose, that of formulating school policies.

The first of these Committees to be organized was one to help the Parent Teachers Association in their campaign for increasing their membership. This drive turned out to be a huge success for the Council as well as for the PTA.

Next in the limelight came the Thanksgiving Committee that was under the chairmanship of Mel Holleb who along with his peppy assistants made a thorough drive in the division rooms. Real results rewarded thanks to the work of these workers.

Many happier Christmases were celebrated, made possible by the Christmas Committee, and thanks were given to Franklin Adams who acted as Chairman and his driving assistants. The Committee made the Sennites dig into their pockets and give with a happy spirit.

One of the last things the Council was able to do before the semester ended was to sponsor three big contests, which were Music, Architectural, and Radio Broadcast script writing which many Sennites entered.

All School Council—Spring

The twenty-one class officers met with Mr. Davidson in February to plan the Spring work of the All School Council.

At the beginning of the semester, the group worked wholeheartedly to promote Senn News subscription campaigns, 1939 Forum Annual sales and city-wide band and choral contests.

Clean-up campaign was the chief work of the Spring All School Council. A committee under the leadership of Louis Zuckerman, Jayne Benario with Miss Chaitkin as faculty adviser, worked extensively in Senn and the neighboring elementary schools to make the Senn district outstanding for cleanliness. This committee conducted surveys, tabulated results and brilliantly publicized its campaign to Clean-up, Paint-up, and Light-up.

Stunt day, Prom and luncheon committees managed senior affairs most efficiently.

The All School Council may well be proud of its work as the policy making body in Senn. It upholds the democratic traditions of the school and prepares every student for active participation in democratic government. Every worthwhile activity in the school receives proper consideration and support from the members of the All School Council.

Living by that adage, the good old golden rule.

They're active organizers, to clubs they both belong.

Peppy, full of spirit, for Senn they're really strong.

Senn Honor Society is now entering its 20th year as a leading organization of Senn High School. It is the aim of every hardworking Senn student to earn membership in this organization.

To become a member the Senn student must possess at least 25 points, 20 of which must be attained through scholarship. Five points may also be obtained through outstanding service to the school. In major subjects each S counts 8 points; E, 5 points; and each G, 1 point; in the minor subjects, an S earns 4 and an E 2 points.

At the conclusion of the semester, Mr. Davidson and a group of the faculty select graduating Seniors from the Senn Honor Society for the National Honor Society.

Each year, the National Honor Society Initiation is an outstanding feature of the school calendar.

Players

Senn Players enacted two plays of exceptional merit during the past year. In fall Tiger House, a thrilling, chilling mystery, was given by Miss Skillen's seasoned actors and actresses. You Can't Take It With You provided top entertainment for all Sennites. The unforgettable comedy played before capacity audiences.

In addition to the fine work done on these two plays, several one-act plays were presented to small but appreciative groups.

Richard Baker in the Fall semester and Ed Relth in Spring were the guiding spirits of the Players. Other dramatists working in an executive capacity were Ruth Ahlquist, Hamilton Branch, Carol Schmidt, Beryl Peterson and Joan Howard.

The work of the Players during the past year had done much to sustain Senn's fine reputation and to uphold the high standards of the Dramatics department set by Players of other years. Of the past year's work it can be said that new ideas and personalities have been developed. For a gratifying spirit of friendship and cooperation is always prevalent among Senn's dramatists.

Workers

Can those Workers create atmosphere? And how! Remember those thrilling scenes in Tiger House (Oh, those claws!)? Workers designed the settings and lighting effects for this memorable play. With the close of the Fall semester came the solemn ceremony at which Caroline Albert, Patricia Brownell, Alice Driscoll, Doris Nadel, Bernard Nelson, and Bette Nelson were presented with their emblems. At a similar ceremony in June, Ruth Abrahamson, Charlotte Bostetter, Richard Koolconian, Charlotte Kusswurm and Arthur Nordhem were honored.

You Can't Take It With You, the Spring play, made real Senn history. For the first time on the Senn stage real firecrackers were used. The kind cooperation of a neighboring fire department secured this privilege for Workers. But even more exciting was the fact that due to the complete sell-out of tickets, Senn Hall balcony was opened for the first time in many years.

An account of the year wouldn't be complete without the mention of the gay Bohemian party which Miss Doniat and the Workers gave for the Players. The thoroughly Parisian atmosphere insured success.

1939 Forum

Tossing dignity to the winds, the Staff of the 1939 Forum planned an informal book filled with rollicking humor and nursery-rhymish jingles. Using Sally and Sammy Sennite as the central figures, the editorial and art staffs cooperated to publish an Annual worthy of Senn's 26th birthday.

Vivian Fried, Ruth Mader, Arthur Russell and Charles Eischen comprised the quartet which wrestled with editorial problems, plans and publicity.

Fees were handled by the duo-efficiency of Mary Powell and Beverly Olson. The big sales campaign and Freshman Sammy and Sally Sennite contest were managed by Nina Studley.

John Astin and Don Friedman, Co-Sports Editors, edited a peppy and representative Athletic section. Marjorie Bondy took charge of Identifications for group pictures. The graduate biographies were handled by Yvonne Piesens, Marian Richter, Eleanor Sandstrom, Phyllis Stevenson, and Hilda Williams.

Working under the experienced leadership of Miss Corcoran, the enthusiastic staff carried to a brilliant conclusion the work on the 1939 Forum.

1939 Forum

The jolly spirit of Sammy and Sally Sennite has been faithfully transferred to the pages of the 1939 Forum by Mrs. Dooley's competent staff headed by Art Editor Rosemary Shea.

The Readin, Ritin, and Rithmetic of the cover was designed by Theodorsa Ruhmann. Who cannot sympathize with the apple-polishing youth on the first division page done by Shirley Mohlin or with Adele Koenigner's battling boys which appropriately precedes activities? The fishing scene, symbolizing Athletics, was also executed by Adele. The wooden-shoed little lady who heads the informal snapshot section was drawn by Rosemary Shea.

Clever border designs by Lois Green and the Ex Libris and Finis by Shirley Miller contributed much to the charm of the 1939 Forum.

The excellent mounting of graduates, and snapshots was due to the hard work of Don Peterson and Herman Kellman.

The guiding spirit behind the Art Staff was quiet, efficient Mrs. Dooley.

Senn News

The Senn News started the second quarter-century of Senn High School's existence in an inspiring, zestful way, exemplifying its TWENTY SECOND YEAR OF SPIRITED LEADERSHIP.

On the morning of September 23, 1938 Senn students sat amazed as they scanned a new Senn News, thoroughly modernized in format and content, and maintaining but one old tradition—the spirit of powerful, straightforward journalism.

Leaders in this transformation were the Editorial Triumvirs, Shirley Blacker, Richard Goldberg and Don Yellon. Special editions during the fall semester included the Halloween, Armistice Day, the Pigskin —that sent Senn's gridiron temperature to record height—and the Junior Jinx Editions.

February ushered in the new editorial staff with Elaine Ehlers and Gloria Krasnow as co-editors. While plans for the spring papers were being concluded, the Staff turned their attention to the Senn Broadcast over WMAQ and the full page write-up in the Chicago American. After these achievements, the first spring papers went to press. Insennity, Sports and the Schedule Editions were among the special issues published during this semester.

R.O.T.C.

Technical Sergeant George L. Searle's retirement in March, 1939 put the command of the Senn Regiment into the hand of Staff Sergeant Albert J. Cloutier. As Sergeant Cloutier reported to Senn as the Assistant Instructor on September 6, 1938, he had six months in which to familiarize himself with the routine of his new job. Because of this foresight, the Regiment's progress was not retarded during the change of command.

In the Fall of 1938, Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Alvin Ash, assisted by Cadet Major Robert Dellenback, Cadet Major Ross Merritt, and Cadet Major Sherrill Smith commanded the unit. During their tenure of office, a Military Ball was held on December 16 at the Country Club of Evanston. Chairman Cadet Major Dellenback and his co-workers on the committee, Cadet Captain Berger, Cadet 2nd Lieutenant Clark, and Cadet Captain Weikel of the Band produced one of the most financially and socially successful Balls held in years.

On November 10 the entire school turned out to witness an Armistice Day ceremony featuring the R.O.T.C. unit and a special firing squad.

When the new semester came, Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Sherrill Smith was appointed commanding officer. His assisting officers were Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Ross Merritt of the Cadet Corps Staff, Cadet Major Cletus Berger and Cadet Major Warren Darnell. These officers and the new Military Instructor instituted a successful teaching campaign on theory work, a phase of the R.O.T.C. too often neglected.

The enrollment for the unit was over 400 for both the Fall of 1938 and the Spring of 1939. Every cadet not only was given intensive training in application of drill and command, but received lectures and tests on military courtesy, scouting and patrolling, first aid, rifle marksmanship, musketry and map reading.

Senn R. O. T. C. Concert Band

The Senn Concert Band is one of the outstanding activities of the High School and it has developed much of the spirit which now exists in the school.

Organized in 1921 under the leadership of Captain King, it aroused very much interest among the students; it grew from a small organization to a large powerful one with an enviable record. Captain Gish, the successor to Captain King, resigned in 1930 and his successor was an incomparable musician, Captain Charles Ostergren, our present director. The Band has gone on with unique record because of his indefatigable efforts in behalf of this organization.

The Band has won City contests since 1926 and numerous State and National contests. The Band presents its concerts every Fall and Spring.

The Band Department consists of the Concert Band of 90 pieces, and the Military Band of 60 pieces.

Its purpose is to create and inspire interest in instrumental music and to further Band membership among the students. For greater efficiency the Band is divided into two units, both functioning as a company in the R. O. T. C. This system is a important factor in the Band's outstanding achievements as it promotes discipline, without which no organization can exist.

The Concert Band consists of experienced musicians who are familiar with concert music. They participate in assembly programs, football assemblies and games, serve on other occasions where band music is appropriate and they participate at all R. O. T. C. functions. Band drill is a regular part of the curriculum. The Military Band is composed of less experienced musicians and acts as a "feeder" for the Concert Band, giving the student the necessary experience and preparation.

Its success has been aided by the moral and financial support of the Parents' Association which was one of the first of its kind to be organized —which was in 1928. They have raised sums of money for the advancement of instrumental music in Senn High School and have furnished numerous sums of money for trips to the National contests.

Boys' Chorus

The Boys' Chorus, first of its kind in Senn, was organized by Mrs. Millar last fall. After a great deal of scouting about 50 members were recruited. But in the Spring many more boys applied than could be accepted. The chorus under its own officers is student managed and as a result the discipline problem has been considerably minimized.

Some of the numbers included in the boys' repertoire are Let Every Tongue Adore Thee by Bach, On the Lagoon by Brahms, Palmer Clarke's Sea Gypsy, and Border Ballad by Maunder.

The Boys' Chorus now ranks as one of the better organized Senn choral groups.

Girls' Chorus

Another new music organization is the Girls' Chorus under the direction of Miss Cameron. The girls prepare part-songs for Assembly programs and concerts. The Chorus members work enthusiastically in preparation of repertoire for ensemble singing.

The fine spirit of fellowship among the girls is shown by the successful social gatherings that have been held during the past year. An afternoon tea at the Edgewater Beach Hotel, a spring picnic and the handkerchief showers for graduating chorus members show that the girls have managed to find time both for work and for play.

The only boy even vaguely connected with the Girls' Chorus is their super-accompanist Ted Berg.

A Cappella Choir

The Senn A Cappella Choir, composed of 60 girls and 40 boys, had a busy and satisfying season. Its fall appearances included a P.T.A. concert, vesper programs at several churches. An exceptionally fine Christmas program, given in the traditional manner, was the outstanding performance of the choir. January 11, competing in the city-wide Choral contest, the Senn group won an Excellent rating, thus rounding out a semester's activities.

In Spring the A Cappella Choir and the Glee Clubs participated in the city-wide Spring Festival which was held at the International Amphitheatre. Shortly after this, came the Annual Concert in which a total of 200 singers and musicians took part.

The Senn A Cappella under Dr. Burkholder's direction completed its season by singing in the North Side Festival held at Chase Park.

Marshals

The Marshal organization is outstanding for the civic work it has done in Senn. It has always followed its original purpose—to instill into the minds of Senn students the ideals of leadership and service. A truly civic-minded organization.

The organization within the last year has done much to improve conditions around Senn, especially concerning school discipline, fire control, and other emergency conditions that might arise.

Under the capable leadership of Dr. Brown and the executive staff, the Marshals have grown and prospered and improvements are constantly being made.

Interperiod sports and games and outside meetings besides regular duty are part of the Senn Student Marshal Program.

Big Sisters

To guide, encourage and cherish Sally and Sammy Freshman is the aim of the Big Sisters.

4A Girls have helped this semester to make our Freshman boys and girls acquainted with Senn, its complex building, its systems and its activities.

On Wednesday, May 17, the Freshman Assembly provided talent from its own group. The Big Sisters have coached these youngsters for their premiere performance, have given them stage presence and have stimulated their enthusiasm.

Each 1B and 1A division has a Big Sister who reports to long division on Fridays to convey school news, interprets Freshman plans and stimulates scholarship competition.

Last semester 249 and 336, the Freshman rooms showing greatest improvement in scholarship, were treated to a matinee at the Uptown Theatre. The Big Sister sponsors of 249 and 336 accompanied the groups. The same treat is ready for two freshman rooms at this time.

Help Youth To Help Itself, the purpose of the PTA, has been fulfilled to a great extent during the past year.

Due to the work of the Senn PTA, needy students have been supplied with eye-glasses and dental treatment. This year six dollars has been contributed every month for lunches, carefare, and necessary materials; installments were paid up on an instrument for an unfortunate boy; an electric heating pad was presented to the girls' room; a donation was made to the marshals and a contribution to the School Children's Aid was given.

The membership of the Senn PTA now numbers 660.

The Peasant motif so popular this year was utilized by the Art Guild as atmosphere for one of its famous teas. Bright colors and hand-painted costumes were much in evidence as the artists exhibited pictures done in water color, oils and chalks. Prizes were awarded for outstanding work. A Christmas Tea also numbered among the festive events of the year.

When things began to grow quiet, Mrs. Dooley and the Art Guild went tripping off to the Field Museum and Art Institute. To round off the season's activities completely, a visit was made to a Thursday night sketch class conducted by a former Sennite.

"Where are you going my pretty maid?" "To pose for the Art Guild, sir," she said.

Conservatory betterment is the aim of twenty-five students and a teacher. To further this idea the Conservatory Club was organized. Enthusiastic botanists not only care for plants in the conservatory, conduct flower sales, and study rare plants but also find time to visit Park conservatories.

Many unusual plants have been added to Senn's own conservatory during the past year. The maintenance of our miniature greenhouse would not be possible without the cooperation of Miss Keener and the many students who devote much of their time to this work.

Students interested in creative writing have joined Scribblers. The club has been meeting for several years under the sponsorship of Miss Kracke.

The only entrance requirement is an original manuscript. The writer reads his manuscript, after which other members offer frank and constructive criticisms.

The club published a book, Wood Bees, in 1938 and material is now being collected for a second book.

An interesting feature of the club is the Mail Box. Each Scribbler adopts a fictitious name at the beginning of the semester, and these people correspond with one another. At the end of the semester their real names are revealed.

Members endeavored to learn the rudiments of the Greek language. In addition to this, weekly reports were given on the lives of the great Greek thinkers, Plato, Pythagoras, Hypocrites and others. A careful study of early Greek mythology and the Eleusinian Mysteries was also made.

In keeping with the spirit of the club were the two excursions taken this year—a visit to a Greek Church and a trip to the Adler Planetarium.

The Pythagoreans, Senn mathematicians, delighted in problems that befuddle ordinary humans. At almost every meeting these stellar computors brought in solutions to tricky problems and submitted even trickier ones to their fellow members. Besides working out mathematical problems, Miss Sandberg directed spirited debates between members—the subjects varied from a discussion of the relative interest of algebra and geometry to an analytical survey of the life of Thales. Fascinating puzzles, figure juggling and other interesting programs invested mathematics with a sparkle and life that attracted many Sennites to this club.

Music-minded Sennites, either swing lovers or classical enthusiasts, make up the membership of the Music club. All interested in performing music or in listening to it contribute to its activities. Weekly programs consisting of community singing, talks on music, and solo performances given by members comprise a delightful relaxation from studies. But the musicians have achieved far more. Two broadcasts over WMAQ, modern concerts, and the production of one operetta have done much to show the interest and energy of Senn music lovers. Mr. Hamilton wields the baton over Music Club productions.

With altos and tenors and pianists too, They shall have music whatever they do.

June, 1939, closes another successful year in the Home Economics Club. During the fall semester Jacqueline Hutton and Carol Webb planned many interesting programs—the outstanding one being a trip to Christopher House.

During the spring semester, the program committee, working with Mrs. Walters, planned demonstrations of the proper methods of make-up and hair-styling and other exhibitions of clothing and foods. Patricia Haugan, one of the members, won a prize offered by a leading department store in a silk dress contest.

A Mothers' Tea given in May was planned by Elinor Jones, Claire Sandberg, Betty Neumann, and Patricia Scanlan. A party for the girls marked the completion of each semester.

The Senn Economics Club gives the students interested in economics an opportunity to get together for the purpose of discussing current economic affairs. Meeting the third period every Tuesday, the Club has presented programs varied and entertaining under the guidance of our two able chairmen, Lois Wesslund and Sidney Rudnick. Moving pictures, panel discussions, debates, "Professor Quiz" spelling bees, "What's My Name," and a trial to determine student information on a widely publicized current problem are examples of what has kept the more than fifty members interested throughout the past semester. A party with refreshments will wind up the affairs of the Club in June.

More than three smart girls saw the interesting possibilities of a shorthand club. Thirty names appear on the list of Pitman charter members. The club organized last fall under the sponsorship of Mrs. Lawler.

Shorthand speed practice, movies from the A. B. Dick Company, a lecture by a representative of the Pitman Publishing Company, plays and a newspaper written in shorthand insure entertaining and instructive meetings.

Girls in their last semester of shorthand had a contest. The winner was awarded a gold pin.

A trip to the offices of Montgomery Ward provided some very useful information about employment and employee qualifications.

For brains that are nimble, hands that are quick, Shorthand really is no trick.

Football

All hopes of the stout-hearted Green and White Bulldog retaining their North Section title bone in 1938 was blanketed by one obstacle, a massive Rock of Gibraltar Lane Tech machine.

"Gone are the old, familiar faces . . . " Lamb's immortal words stood frosted on Coach Ed Dow's lips at the opening response to the call for candidates. The line, including Carlson, Osterveer, Nugent, and Torrel, was torn apart by the preceding June and January graduations, with Leis, the brightest star of them all, leaving a pair of immeasurably tough shoes to fill in the backfield.

So Dow again reverted to the classics with the plea, "Give me some men who are stout-hearted men. . . ." He got 'em too; and as the season opened with but four lettermen, Milliken, Nelson, Aberson, and Crimmins, returning from last year's city runnerups, Dow made it clear that all roads lead to—Lane! With that objective determinably set in their eyes, the Green and White opened at Loyola Stadium with a 6-0 practice victory over the Academy.

This was followed by a vigorous 26-6 win over Amundsen. Then eleven burly Rough Riders from Roosevelt roared from out of the West and but one touchdown narrowly separated a Senn victory from a defeat. Aberson "Sammy Baughed" a touchdown pass to Fleming for the only score.

Lake View's Wild Cats scratched and screamed but the Bulldogs, on the contrary, had a bite to equal their bark and squeezed through on an 8-0 count with a safety and a touchdown scored by Fleming.

The calm before the storm came the next Saturday when lowly Waller placed its head on the block. The Senn guillotine snapped . . . 33-0.

Now take your magic key and open up Father Time's private cabinet. Pick out October 22 and you're settled in the grandstand at Addison and Western. If you're wearing Myrtle and Gold it's warm but if you sit on the Senn side it's bitter cold. And it stayed that way all through the afternoon. An afternoon that was on edge throughout with passes and prayers . . . cleats and cleverness. The Indians crashed down the war path and stomped out without mercy all Senn title hopes.

The indomitable Lane machine was far too powerful, their defense too impregnable, and their charging offense far too overwhelming for the spunky Bulldogs, with Milliken at the helm and Brown pacing the comparatively light line, who fought almost to the point of exhaustion even to the moment when the final score was being posted on the board: Lane 34, Senn 13.

The remainder of the season might have been called the falling action (English theme writing, remember?) only it was'nt. Sullivan who had been gnashing their teeth for the past five years, grasped this opportune moment to try to strike a lethal blow. The Rogers Park boys managed to push over two touchdowns, one capped with the extra point, but the Bulldogs overlapped this with a hard-earned 26 points gained mostly through the passing of Aberson to Ends Peterson and Polland.

Bob Koehler's Schurz outfit, much weaker than in former years, fell 14-0, in the Green and White finale. In the outstanding play of the game, Fleming banged through right tackle, and, losing blockers Milliken and Aberson in the scuffle, he scampered 80 yards . . . outdistancing three would-be tacklers to score the first touchdown. Nelson grabbed one of Aberson's passes to conclude the Senn scoring.

The Alumni, led by perennial threat Gus Elliot, smashed to a 19-0 conquest over the weary varsity on Thanksgiving morning.

Junior Basketball

If fight and hustle determined the champion, then Eddie Dow's scrappy Junior cagers should have finished on top instead of the bottom of the North Section heap.

In the opener with Von Steuben, the Senn boys fought hard but lost on a 30-21 count. The following Friday, Sullivan upset age-old tradition by defeating Senn for the second time since becoming a high school. Next the Senn ponies traveled to Schurz to be defeated in a contest combining fun, fights and fouls 32-23.

Then came two midseason victories, the only two for the hard-fighting and hard-losing team this year. First in line were the Lake View Cats. The Dowmen had little trouble squelching them 35-29. The second win was gained at the expense of Amundsen 30-22.

Then, to pour salt into the sting left by a 46-22 Waller defeat, Lane won the following game 38-17, taking an early lead which they stubbornly refused to relinquish. For every Green and White goal Roosevelt, in the next game, scored two. The contest ended with Roosevelt winning 30-15.

In the last game of the year against Steinmetz the quintet went down fighting to their seventh defeat of the year, losing 31-16.

Senior Basketball

Dogged by bad luck and mid-year graduation, the Senn Senior cage artists finished a rather mediocre season with a record of five wins and four losses.

The Bulldogs opened the season by sinking Von Steuben in a veritable barrage of baskets 40-15. Senn took an early commanding lead and were never headed throughout the game.

They took the measure of their neighborhood rivals Sullivan in a hard-fought game 35-23. Schurz was the next victim and fell 28-26. The Shamrocks now had visions of a North Section title but Lake View shattered these 29-20.

The next game saw Senn lose a 37-34 decision to Amundsen, finding it virtually impossible to penetrate Amundsen's man-to-man defense.

Waller proved a tough nut to crack but Senn broke through in the last quarter to win 27-24 due to the consistent playing of Dwan and Davis. The Lane Indians were after revenge and Senn got scalped 36-29 only after a last quarter rally had been stymied. Dwan again led the Senn scoring.

Senn eked out a close win over Roosevelt by a score of 38-36 and the final game with Steinmetz proved a pitfall.

Track

The Senn Junior Track team completed a successful indoor season in 1939 by finishing 2nd behind Crane in the City Meet. The team hung up three wins and two losses in their practice meets.

The Lane Indians were Senn's first victims and fell 40-24. University High proved to be a soft touch as the Bulldogs trounced them 35-23. Rolling on to their third straight victory the Tracksters whipped Steinmetz 30-22.

Pointing for the City Meet, the Juniors went to town falling short of first place as they garnered 17 1-2 points to Crane's 21. In this meet the Senn Junior relay team hung up a new record of 1:41.1 for the half mile relay to clip a tenth of a second off the old record of 1:41.2.

With a short practice season, the Seniors rung up one victory against three losses. Only one of these losses was by a comfortable margin as two were dropped by one third of a point and 2 1-3 points respectively.

In the City Meet, the Senn cinder artists copped fifth place with Kissel pacing the team and placing in both high and low hurdle events. Blumenthal got a first in the triple broad jump for Senn.

Outstanding for Senn were Blumenthal, Kissel, and Voightman.

Apparatus

When alumni get together in years to come and begin to reminisce about Senn's athletic triumphs, 1939 will be regarded as the year that Coach Al Bergmann's gymnasts surprised them all.

They will remember that 1939 was the year that the apparatus team won the city novice championship in a David-Goliath setup against Lindblom, perennial leaders. They wll look back and remember that it was the time Howie Jaynes won the individual championship, with Rollie Beyer capturing second place.

They will, in short, recall that the gym team had one of the finest seasons in its history. And they will be correct on all accounts, for the gym team of 1939 was a true inspiration for all teams in the future.

The regular team was composed of Howie Jaynes, Hans Leis, Ben Keister, Edward Austin, Dick Gould, Herbert Minds, and Alfred Bjorkland. Each of these won major letters while the minor monograms were awarded to Jack Patrick, Edward Relth, and Harold Bell.

Fencing Class

With an enrollment of 43 students, the advanced Fencing class promises plentiful recruits for next year's Shamrock fencing team. Under Coach Shaffner's able tutelage they have rapidly learned the art of parry and reposte.

The class is divided into 10 teams of four men to a team with the remaining three as substitutes. The teams are conducting a tournament between the four teams. To date only two of these matches have been completed. The team composed of Ross, Cohn, Seigel, and Green defeated Kansteiner, Wideman, Constan and Golinken 9 bouts to 7. The other match saw Moard, Gregg, Greenman, and Barris defeat Fenche, Ross, Sevin and Zuckerman on points 61-60 although they were tied in bouts 8-8.

In one of the other matches, the team composed of Kondrat, Thanis, Benjamin and Kleinemen are leading Kirk, Paetz, Christensen and Frank by a score of 8-4. This match still has four bouts remaining to be played.

Since most of his regular fencing team is graduating, Coach Shaffner will have to build his 1939-40 team around this promising class.

Fencing Team

If there is such a thing as a moral victory then the Fencing Team has a perfect right to claim that intangible honor, for but three points and Austin separated Coach Shaffner's quartet from the City championship this year.

The moral victory angle comes in when we recall that the Senn boys beat out the West Siders to take the Kraft Cup. Then, too, Senn won the State fencing championship again defeating Austin.

However, when the City Meet came, Senn finished a close second behind the Austin foil nemesis, losing by a meager three points 163-160.

At first it appeared that the Green and White was unbeatable. Jerry Mau, Jack Millen, Robert Deming, and Henry Hauser kept rolling along running up a total of sixteen straight wins before losing a match. Then they met Austin. . . .

Another glance at the moral victory side: out of a total of approximately 40 fencers, eight qualified for the individual championship. Of these Senn placed three men, Millen, Mau, and Deming, but so did Austin. Again, Senn's fencers could do nothing with the Austin trio.

Captain Jack Millen, Jerry Mau, Bob Oliphant, Warren Malik, and Robert Deming won major letters for their fine work.

Swimming

Climaxing a rather inglorious season with the City Meet, the Bulldog tankers placed only one man in the finals for each team. Howie Jaynes placed for the Seniors and Spring for the Juniors.

Jaynes, in the State Meet, finished second behind Anderson of Lane Tech, but in the City Meet in April, Jaynes upset Anderson to easily win the City Diving Crown. Spring of the Juniors also finished third in the diving.

Jaynes has been the only consistent winner for the Seniors all year. Other tankers that showed well on the team were Jenkins, Lundeen, Beyer and Bjorkland, the latter two placing 10th and 14th respectively.

Although the season could not be called successful, Coach Bergmann is far from pessimistic. The material is in the school if the fellows would only turn out. The Junior team was composed mostly of first year men who had no experience in competition and the season proved to be valuable in that respect for them. The Juniors were handicapped in several meets by having to swim against older fellows than themselves and this was the cause of one or two defeats.

Baseball

After a short practice season caused by rainy weather the Shamrock diamonders began the season with a record of three wins and three losses in six practice games. Presenting a well balanced team, Coach Miller's baseballers made their 1939 debut by coming from behind to beat the Austin Maroons easily 14-6.

Later Austin got revenge by beating Senn in a return engagement 12-10. Morton also proved too tough for the Millermen and Senn lost 10-3. Journeying to Wilmette, Senn found New Trier an easier foe and downed them 4-2 for their second win in four games. The Oak Park game proved a thriller which Senn dropped 2-0 although pitchers Kanis and Aberson allowed Oak Park only two hits. The final practice game saw Senn downing Farragut in a free scoring contest 12-11.

In the opening league game, Amundsen proved a surprise by beating Senn 5-2 for an upset victory but Senn came back in the next two games and trounced Lake View and Roosevelt 5-3 and 10-5, respectively. Due to the late beginning Senn has yet to face Waller, Amundsen, Schurz, Lane, Von Steuben, Lake View and Roosevelt.

The highlight of the practice season was the no-hit, no-run game pitched by John Kanis against Kelvyn Park as Senn won 10-0.

Badminton

Badminton, the newest star to take its orbit among the constellation of sports, boasts a membership of thirty boys who, under Cap Leighton, have really started the baby sport on its career at the Green and White school.

Due to an ingenious method devised by Coach Shaffner, six badminton courts are made available at a time. These courts also can be converted into tennis courts, thus giving the tennis team a chance to work out in the gymnasium also.

Racquets and shuttlecocks are furnished by the school bringing the playing cost down to a minimum.

Senn, under Coach Harry Leighton, has been instrumental in the founding of badminton in Chicago high schools. Although badminton has been featured here for less than a year several schools from the city have visited the gymnasium and later developed courts much similar to those arranged by Coach Shaffner.

A round robin intramural tournament has been in progress and fourteen double teams took part.

ROW 1: Shafranas, Vinci, Susman, Lindsey, Moard; ROW 2: Mercier, Cummings, Hammett, Hamm, Adams; ROW 3: Katz, Chambas, Grandell, Chapman, Millen, Berggren, Baum.

ROW 1: Leighton, Mestman, Schoke, Diedrich, Evert.

Tennis

Cap Leighton's netters have played through a successful season so far and although there is some chance for a championship this year, every member will return to the squad next season, bringing a state title within easy grasp.

In the state qualifying matches Captain Jimmy Evert, national indoor boys' singles and doubles champion, won both of his matches and will enter the finals. In the first encounter against Belson of Hyde Park, Jim won two out of three sets, the scores being 3-6, 6-4, and 7-5.

Don Shiller and Art Leighton qualified in the doubles division, beating Lindblom 6-0 and 6-3 and Morgan Park 6-3 and 6-3. Moss and Shoke won their first match from Crane Tech. They lost their second match to Kelvin Park, city doubles champs.

In the practice meets Senn beat Loyola 4-1, Evert winning 8-6, 6-3; Leighton winning 6-0, 6-4; Shiller and Moss winning 6-1, 6-2; and Leighton and Dietrich losing 2-6 and 0-6. They then defeated Lake View 3-0. Evert won 6-0 and 6-2. Leighton followed through, winning his sets by the same scores. Moss and Shoke won 2 out of 3 sets in the doubles division.

ROW 1: Goldstein, Dwan, Temple, Libman, Coach Miller.

Golf

With a record of four straight sectional wins, Senn qualified for the City playoffs for the 1938 golf season. The playoffs saw Senn finish third behind Lane and Morgan Park.

During the season the Green and White divot diggers triumphed over Von Steuben 9-3 and Roosevelt 10-2. The next meet was with Sullivan whom the Bulldogs easily trounced 9-3. Lake View also proved a soft touch and Senn won 7½-4½.

In the playoffs, Lane was Senn's first opponent and as was typical of the 1938 season, the Indians were too tough and Senn lost its first match of the season 9½-2½. Senn bounced right back to whip the quartet from Hyde Park 9-3, but Morgan Park also proved a nemesis to the Senn four, 8½-3½. The final standings of the championships gave Senn third place in the City behind Lane, the champion, and Morgan Park, the runner-up. Hyde Park finished fourth.

Every member of the team, Don Temple, Warren Johnson, Ira Goldstein, Robert Schlau, and Joseph Libman were awarded letters for their fine play through the season.

The 1939 season had not yet gotten under way but the State preliminaries for golf were just completed. Senn qualified with John Dwan carding 79 for second place. A Lindblom player was first with 76.

That Senn is not lacking in girls of the athletic type is well testified by the large membership of the SGAA, Junior and Senior girls under the advisorship of Miss Jeffrey, and Freshmen and Sophomores under Mrs. Jones meet weekly in the girls' gym.

A letter S, the culmination of many a Senn girl's efforts, is awarded by the club when 1000 points earned in athletic efficiency, health, scholarship and leadership have been accumulated.

This Spring the old Leaders' club incorporated with the SGAA. The new organization divided into two groups. With the help of Mrs. Jones, Dorothy Brown, Jean Savartwout, Gisella Novak and Erna Rotter piloted the activities of the Freshman and Sophomore girls.

The enlarged SGAA is doing very successful work in promoting girls' sports in Senn.

Girls at Senn who are interested in swimming are encouraged to join Nereids. Members swim during the eighth period, Monday, when they practice advanced swimming and diving technique. Letters are awarded girls who have won 500 points — earned in endurance, speed swimming, sportsmanship and leadership.

Business meetings are held Wednesday mornings at which time programs and projects are planned. A bicycle hike to the forest preserves is the annual spring outing. The winter party is usually held at one of the member's homes.

An intramural swimming meet is sponsored every semester by Mrs. Harold and the Nereids. The meets include races, relays, and diving exhibitions. One more service rendered the school by the Nereids is the assistance to members in the swimming classes.
